GOV. COX APPEALS TO EX-SERVICE MEN

Presents Ten Reasons Why They Should Support Democrats

WRITES ARGONNE POST

Deplores Blind Partisanship—Urges Claim For League as Means to End War.

New York, Oct. 1.—Ten reasons why former service men should support the Democratic national ticket prepared by Gov. Cox, were made public here last night by the Democratic national committee.

The ten arguments were included by the Democratic presidential candidate in the following letter to the Argonne Post Weekly, of Des Moines, Iowa.

"There are no ten reasons—nor indeed any other number of reasons—why a former service man should be either a hide-bound Republican or Democratic partisan. I cannot refrain from uttering my sentiments on this point before proceeding.

"Uncompromising partisanship would dry up the well springs of that healthy public sentiment which has made America. It would make men slaves to those who formulate the party policy and would forever stagnate the intellectual development of our people.

"I believe in political parties and I have affiliated myself with the Democratic party because I have agreed with its tenets as to government. I shall, therefore, with your pardon, give you the ten reasons why an ex-service man, should support the Democratic candidates:

"Because they have constantly talked the broadest principles of progressive development, conforming to the spirit of the century for independent political judgment.

"Because its candidates have never said, and never believed that sentiment recently uttered by Senator Harding when he said, "too much is heard of independence in politics.'

"Because in this year the Democratic party represents the honor of the country, because it believes in keeping faith with the living and faith with the dead, faith with our allies, and faith with our foes.

"Because the Democratic party stands for a league of nations, the existing league, to end war, to compose differences by adjustment of wrongs through the processes of world opinion.

"Because it would have America assume its rightful place at the head of the nations of the world, unafraid to take its place as a leader.

"Because only through the league of nations can order be brought to the world and because the failure of the league will cause us to revert to international anarchy, huge competitive armaments, which are the inevitable breeders of war.

"Because the Democratic candidates despise to appeal to racial bigotry.

"Because the Republican party leaders have unblushingly appealed to the disloyalists of the United States and are unashamed to hold their power in the United States by reason of the vote of a man found guilty of violating the law in obtaining his seat in that body, Senator Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan.

"Because the Democratic administration wrote into the laws of the country the Federal reserve act, the farm loan act, and other pieces of legislation that enabled it to muster

Seek to Have City Pay $40,000 Representing Half Interest on Bond Issue Sure to be Paid in Five Years

The monthly news letter of the Chamber of Commerce follows:

The month of September brought with it the renewed activities of the Chamber of Commerce and the various bodies of this organization have held their regular meetings with a vast amount of business to be attended to. Your Chamber of Commerce considers the thing of paramount importance at this time is the building of the Little River Turnpike. The Chamber has always advocated and endorsed good roads and has been working on this project many months, and uless something goes amiss the fruits of their labors will be realized; this, in our opinion, will be one of the biggest things toward the advancement of Alexandria that ever happened.

Fairfax County has reached a point where they will vote on November 2nd, 1920, to authorize a bond issue of $500,000.00 to be advanced to the State for the construction of modern highway from Alexandria to the western boundary of Fairfax County. This money will be paid back by the State to the County in five years or less in equal installments until the whole amount is liquidated. In handling the bond issue

CAMERON CLUB LECTURE

The committee from the Cameron Club in charge of arrangements for the talk tomorrow night by Mrs. Thomas C. Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in the Young People's Building, announces that the tickets of admission are being largely sought, and any to whom they were sent who are not going to use them, will please return them to Miss Helen Norris Cummings, as only a sufficient number were printed to accommodate the seating capacity of the hall, and there are many who were not so fortunate as to receive tickets, owing to the limited number, and Miss Cummings would be glad to reissue those that the original holders find it impossible to use.

Mrs. Winter is one of the most prominent women in the club world and a speaker of marked personality, the Cameron Club is to be congratulated upon being able to secure her for this address.

Typhoid Situation

Only Six Cases During September—Reduction of Fifty Per Cent. Over Last Year.

Dr. Louis Foulks, city health officer, reports there were six cases of typhoid fever reported during the month of September. One of the cases he says was brought from the country. Last year during the month of September eleven cases of typhoid were reported in this city.

From Janary 1. 1919 to September 30 there were seventy-one cases. For the same period this year there were thirty-four cases, making a reduction of over fifty per cent.

Since May there were no cases of smallpox reported. Only case each of scarlet fever and diptheria were reported during the past month and the officer reports the health situation as good.

TOMORROW LAST DAY

Registrars Tomorrow Will be at Places Mentioned Below From Sun rise Till Sunset

A total of 1150 women had paid their capitation taxes up to 3 o'clock this afternoon. Tomorrow ends the time for the payment of these taxes. The registrars will be on hand at their homes all day tomorrow for the accommodation of both men and women who desire to register.

City Treasurer Thomas W. Robinson and Commissioner of Revenue Charles H. Callahan stated this afternoon they would remain at their offices tonight until 9 o'clock for the accommodation of those who cannot call during the day.

The registrars will be at their homes or places of business to register from sunrise until sunset tomorrow. After sunset no one will be registered.

A total of 125 women paid their taxes from 9 o'clock this morning until 3 o'clock this afternoon and it is expected that by tomorrow evening the total number who will have paid will number about 1200. This, therefore, exceeds the expectations of many of the city officials who estimated that not more than 1,000 would register. Tomorrow being general registration day it is open for men as well as women.

Seek Owner Of Still

Fred Sauller Acquitted—Found in Rear of Yard of Place Rented By Sauller.

A still and a quantity of mash were recovered from a house on Prince street between West and Payne streets September 23. which was not occupied but which had been rented about three weeks previous to that time by Fred Sauller, a plumber. As a result of the raid made by Chief Goods and Sergt. Wilkinson, Sauller was arraigned in the police court today and was represented by Attorney Snow. After hearing the evidence he was acquitted.

Thomas H. Carter testified that he rented the house to Sauller about three weeks ago but it had never been occupied, Chief Goods told the court he received word that a still was at the place and he and Sergt. Wilkinson went to the place and after a search found the still in a yard directly back of the house, it being in a big box such as is used by merchants for bread. In the yard they also found one large and two small barrels of what appeared to be whiskey mash.

On the floor of the bathroom of the house there was a coating almost half an inch thick of what appeared to be mash. There was evidence he declared that the still had been disconnected and placed in the yard.

Sauller denied knowledge of the ownership of the still and his reason for not moving into the house immediately after renting it he said was because he was not quite ready and he expected to move in about the time the place was raided, he said. His reason for being out of the city since the raid he said was that he was on a visit and also has been away on business.

CAR THIEVES HIDE LOOT IN TOMBSTONE

While Removing Plunder From Cemetery Stone Robbers Surprised

DROP SUGAR AND RUN

Detective Harvey Recovers About $400 Worth of Merchandise From Tomb—Believe Men Wounded

Tombstones in a grave yard as the hiding place for loot is the latest fad of car thieves in Alexandria it was discovered last night by Special Detective Puckett W. Harvey, of the Southern Railway.

Harvey had been watching the cemetery for the car thieves from sundown and shortly before 8 o'clock his efforts were rewarded when he saw two men in the darkness crouched about an old fashioned slab tombstone in Christ Church cemetery, which adjoins the Southern Railway tracks.

Armed with a shotgun, which was thrown over his shoulder, Harvey called to the cemetery prowlers to halt. Instead of halting they dropped a package they had and ran like a deer. He let loose with his shotgun and feels confident that at least one of the men is today peppered with birdshot.

Immediately afterward Harvey crossed over to the cemetery and found that the men were removing about fifty pounds of sugar from the interior of the old stone, which is covered over with a big marble slab. They had dropped the plunder, in their flight, beside the stone.

The slab was removed by the officers and there he found merchandise valued at at least $400 which included women's blouses, dress goods hats, overcoats, sugar, pins, boots and shoes and a host of other articles all of which had been stolen from railroad cars.

For the past week the railroad authorities together with the police have

To Talk With Dead

Thomas Edison At Work on Machine To Communicate With Those Who Have Passed Into the Great Beyond.

New York, Oct. 1.—Thomas A. Edison is now at work on a delicate apparatus which he has designed to effect indisputable communication between those whom death has removed from this earth and those who yet live.

It is Mr. Edison's hope to complete the instrument within a few months, and he himself realizes what a tremendous sensation it would create, if it proves to be successful. He says he would not be surprised if reponses on his new appartus should first come from telegraphers or scientists or those thoroghly familiar with the use of delicate instruments and electric currents.

Announcement of Mr. Edison's experiment is made by B. C. Forbes, in an article in the American Magazine for October, in which he quotes the inventor at length respecting the apparatus. Mr. Edison, however, does not disclose anything of the character or physical aspect of his new device.

"I am proceeding," Mr. Edison says in the article "on the theory that, in the very nature of things, the degrees of material or physical power possessed by those in the next life must be extremely slight; and that, therefore, any instrument designed to communicate with us must be super-delicate—as finely responsive as human ingenuity can make it.

"For my part, I am inclined to believe that our personality hereafter will be able to affect matter. If this reasoning be correct, then if we can evolve an instrument so delicate as to be affected, or moved or manipulated—whichever term you want to use—by our personality as it survives in the next life such an instrument when made available, ought to record something."

Mr. Edison, commenting upon the mass of material being written these days about spiritualism, says that "the methods and apparatus commonly used and discussed are just a lot of unscientific nonsense."

BASEBALL SCANDAL LEADS TO STABBING

Buck Herzog Slightly Injured When he Resents Spectator's Remark

FELLS QUESTIONER

Unless Weaver Tells What He Knows About World's Series Frame up Grand Jury Will Smoke Him Out

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Charles L. (Buck) Herzog, Cub infielder, against whom charges of crookedness in baseball were made by Rube Benton before the Cook county grand jury, was stabbed three times today at Joliet just after the Cubs had finished playing an exhibition game there. He was not badly injured.

When the game was finished Herzog left the grounds and entered an automobile waiting outside to haul the players back to the hotel where they had dressed. One man from the crowd gathered about the gate climbed upon the running board of the car, stuck his head inside and said:

"You're one of those crooked Chicago ballplayers. When are you going to confess?"

Herzog leaped out of the car, knocked the man down and grappled with him in the dirt, both rolling into a ditch by the roadside. The report was that Herzog gave the fellow a thorough licking, but one of the man's friends pulled a knife and went into the fight, slashing Herzog, first across the palm of his left hand as Buck threw up his hand to ward off the blow. Another slash from Herzog's assailant cut a slight gash across his knuckle, and a third swing by the man with the knife cut through Buck's stocking into the calf of his leg.

By this time Herzog had regained his feet, leaving his first assailant in the ditch and, regardless of the second man having a knife, Herzog started after him. The fellow ran into the crowd and escaped.

No arrests were made in the affair but the names of the men are known to the Cub officials, who made a hasty investigation. At the Hotel Sherman last night Herzog was found not much damaged, but with his left hand bandaged.

Herzog is a Baltimorean and has been in professional baseball for years, playing on several pennant winners and starring in world's series. He formerly managed the Cincinnati Reds.

If George (Buck) Weaver, suspended White Sox third baseman, does not voluntarily appear before Chief Justice McDonald, of the Criminal Court, to tell of his alleged connection with the conspiracy to "throw" the last world's series, as did several of his teammates, an effort will be made to "smoke him out" when the grand jury resumes its investigation tomorrow afternoon.

At that time Weaver's dentist. Dr. Raymond B. Prettyman, of Chicago, will be summoned before the jury to tell what "Buck's" mother-in-law, Mrs Emma Cook, is said to have told him concerning the delivery of a mysterious package, rumored to have contained money, by Fred McMullin, another Sox player, against whom a true bill was voted.

Besides Dr. Prettyman, August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Reds, which team won the 1919 diamond classic from the Sox, and Clyde Elliott, head of the Greater Stars Production Company, an intimate of the Chicago players, are expected to testify today.

The investigation, which State's Attorney Hoyne ordered halted from New York, on the ground that the true bills voted against the eight players would not stand legally, will "proceed without interruption," according to Judge McDonald, "until the scandal affecting the great national game is cleaned up," Hoyne was ex-

EXCELLENT PROGRAM GIVEN EASTERN STAR

Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons Host to Sisters Of O. E. S.

BIG CROWD PRESENT

Elliott Hoffman Presides—Matron Risheill Presented With Flowers—Dancing After "Novelty Night"

Casting aside "labor" for an evening's entertainment Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons No. 120 last night presented an evening of music and comedy at the Elks' Home which was concluded with dancing. The affair was given in honor of the members of Martha Washington Chapter No. 42, Order of Eastern Star. It was designated as "Novelty Night.' The entertainment was attended by a capacity crowd of men and women, members of the Eastern Star and members of the masonic fraternity. A splendid program was given which was greatly enjoyed by all present. All of the participants acquitted themselves in a creditable manner and were encored time and again and from the time of the presentation of the first number, 8.30 o'clock until 10.30 o'clock which marked the grand finale, there was not a dull moment.

The assemblage was called to order by C. Ashby Bladen, chairman of the entertainment committee, who in a brief address introduced Elliott Hoffman worshipful master of the lodge. Mr. Hoffman presided and told of the efforts on the part of the lodge to present an entertainment for the Eastern Star as a token of the appreciation of their efforts to that lodge and he added it inaugurated the first of a series of such entertainments planned for the autumn and winter months.

Following the calling of the gathering to order the members and officers of Martha Washington Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, entered the hall and occupied seats on the stage and Mrs. Mamie Risheill, worthy matron of the local chapter was presented with huge bouquet of flowers the gift of Andrew Jackson Lodge. On behalf of the lodge a speech of presentation was made by James E. Alexander, one of the oldest members of the fraternity, which Mrs. Risheill made an appropriate response. Messrs J. E. Alexander and E. E. Donham were introduced as the two oldest members of the fraternity.

The grand opening was given by the Citizens' Band previous to the introduction of the officers of Martha Washington chapter after which Arthur Pierce of Washington presented 'Darktown Comedy', giving a splendid imitation of Bert Williams on his opening number.

Other numbers following included selections by the Montrose quartette of Washington which were exceptionally good, and "Fifteen Minutes of Ginger and Pep" was the part assigned to E. L. Bair of Chicago and afterward Mr. Blair was again called on and he made a short address extolling the virtues of Freemasonry.

Mrs. Mollie Teachum, grand lecturer of the Grand Chapter of the District of Columbia, was introduced and made an appeal for members of the Masonic fraternity to become identified with the Eastern Star.

Officers of the lodge were the recipients of congratulations on the success of "Novelty Night."

The entertainment committee was composed of C. Ashby Bladen, chairman; E. Gorman Ridgely, Clarence W. Dettor and Charles W. Stumg. In addition to the Citizens' Band music also was furnished by Smith's orchestra.

DOMINION HOME RULE AGAIN.

Viscount Greyls proposal for the settlement of the Irish question is welcome for two reasons. In the first place, as an expression of opinion from an English statesman of the highest repute and experience; in the second, as an indication of the rapid growth of enlightened and influential support for Sir Horace Plunkett's plan of dominion self-government. When the Irish Dominion League was founded more than a year ago it consisted of a small group of moderate Irishmen who found themselves voices crying in the wilderness of exasperated nationalism and Coalition obstinacy. They have been denounced by the devotees of Carsonism both in the United Kingdom and in this country as "camouflaged Sinn Feiners." People on both sides of the Atlantic who profess to have the best interests of Anglo-American relations at heart do not scruple to make the worst insinuations against men whose probity, experience of Irish affairs, and constructive work for their country are beyond dispute.

The increasing roll of adherents to the Dominion solution is the best answer to the partisan detractors of the Horace Plunkett group. It includes the names of many of the most distinguished men in contemporary England. Lord Robert Cecil, Viscount Grey, Sir Gilbert Murray, C. P. Scott, of the Manchester Guardian, H. G. Wells, Sir Phillip Gibbs, Herbert Asquith, H. G. Massingham, H. W. Nevinson, Gen. Sir Hubert Gough These are a few of the varied personalities who are accused of being Sinn Feiners in disguise. The fact that they are the object of such absurd accusations is the measure of the invincible prejudice which is blocking the way to an honest consideration of the facts of the Irish sitation.

The gist of Viscount Grey's suggestions is the same as the plan of the Dominion League. In brief, that "Irishmen must be as free as the people of the self-governing dominions," within the limits of a single foreign policy and centralized army and Navy for the United Kingdom as a whole. The indispensable condition of such a settlement is the withdrawal of the undisciplined Black and Tan constabulary and the present army of occupation at the same time that the Irish people meets in national convention to draw up a constitution for all Ireland. That convention, however, cannot achieve its purpose so long as the Carsonite minority is assured of British support in its attitude of intransigent negation. It was because the Ulster delegates knew that they would be backed up even in their refusal to make any concessions that the Plunkett Convention did not attain unanimity. Ulstr will meet Ireland for the common good of the whole country as soon as it is made clear that the British Government is no longer behind Carsonism. An Irish settlement will be possible when the views of Viscount Grey are those of the Cabinet. We do not believe that the English people is represented by Lloyd George so far as Ireland at least is concerned.

IN JUSTICE TO MR. HARDING.

Senator Harding says that the Federal Government is incurring a deficit of about a billion dollars a year. Actually the Government's income is in excess of its expenditure. Senator Harding says that the national debt is increasing. Actually the national debt has been reduced by three billion dollars within a year. But what do these things matter? As President Senator Harding will have a Secretary of the Treasury who can add up figures correctly.

Senator Harding says that China was unrepresented at the Peace Conference and intrusted her case to our representatives. But what does that matter? As President, he will have a Secretary of State who will know that two Chinese delegates participated in the Peace Conference.

Senator Harding recalls seeing Richard Mansfield in a war-play called "Charles V." But what does that matter? As President, he will have a Commissioner of Education who will tell him that Shakespeare called it Henry V."

In the heat of a Presidential campaign there is an unjust tendency—to ask a candidate what he thinks ought to be done and what he expects to be done and what he expects to do if elected. But that is one-man government. Mr. Harding has made it plain that if elected he will not violate the Constitution by thinking for himself. He will get Mr. Root, Mr. Hiram Johnson, Mr. Lodge, Mr. Borah, and Mr. Penrose to think for him; and if they disagree they can always toss up a coin.

Ohio Painter Afraid To Climb Up Ladder

After Trying Everything Batting's Wife Gets Him Tanlac and Troubles End Gained Fourteen Pounds

"After the way Tanlac relieved my wife of rheumatism, I decided to try it for my own troubles, and the results with me have been fully as remarkable as in the case of my wife," said Joseph B. Batting the well known contracting painter living at 244 Bouquet Ave., Youngstown, Ohio.

"I had been in very bad health for about two years. My stomach was so upset that I couldn't eat a thing without suffering terribly afterward, and in fact, I lost all desire to eat. My nerves got so bad that I was afraid to climb a ladder and I hardly had strength enough to lift a paint bucket. I often had to quit work and go home and lie down, and for the three weeks before I started on Tanlac I hadn't been able to do a stroke of work.

"As all the other medicines that I had taken failed to do me any good. I decided to try the medicine that had been such a blessing to my wife, and being too weak to fetch it myself she went down town and bought a bottle.

"I only wish I had taken it long before I did, for it would have saved me untold misery and a pile of money too. Why, the very first bottle seemed to settle my stomach and to give a new appetite, and now after taking five bottles I am like a brand new man.

"I have a tremendous appetite and never have any trouble with my stomach. I have already gained fourteen pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can do as much work as any man on the job. Both my wife and I feel ten years younger since Tanlac has gotten rid of our troubles and we think there is no medicine in the world like it.

"We will be glad to tell anyone, either personally or by letter, about the way Tanlac has helped us, and we strongly recommend it to all who may be suffering as we did."

the resources of the country at a critical time so that all Americans, regardless of party, might win the greatest of all wars for humanity and for high principles.

"Because, notwithstanding that many conditions are not ideal, America is at this hour the safest place in which to live, the most desirable and the best from every standpoint, and because it will come through progressive evolution to a still higher place of development despite the attempts of reactionaries like Senator Harding to stop it."

pected to return here tomorrow night.

Ever since the confessions of Eddie Cicotte, Joe Jackson, "Happy" Felsch and Claude Williams, the State's Attorney's office has been expecting Weaver to ask permission to go before Judge McDonald. "Buck" has hinted that he would like to get a load off his mind, but has insisted that he never received a penny.

Weaver's friends declare he will admit having been at the hotel meeting with the gamblers; that he refused to help lose the series for $5,000, contending that it was worth at least $20,000 and that when he didn't get that sum declined to go into the deal.

The inquisitors, however, are expected to seek to obtain from Dr. Prettyman information that Weaver was paid and that he got his money when McMullin came with the package Mrs. Cook is alleged to have told the dentist about.

Another matter the jury will delve into is the reported betting on "fixed" games by wives of implicated players. Wives of other players who are said to have had knowledge of betting may be involved.

Mrs. Felsch will be subpoenaed according to Assistant State's Attorney Lightfoot.

Mrs. Williams, wife of the pitcher who is alleged to have received $5,000 from the gamblers, has denied she bet on Cincinnati on games hurled by her husband.

PART OF DAILY LIFE

"God's Country and the Woman" Shows Acts of Courage.

Winter in the vast timber lands of the North is at once terrible and sublime. The lives of men and women reared in the legion are in keeping with the harshness and the rugged splendor of the land itself.

Vistors to the wild Northland, with its appalling wildernesses of ice and snow, usually are bewildered and carry away more or less confused impressions. James Oliver Curwood above all others has learned the land and its people and acquired the faculty of making them real to readers of his forceful and dramatic stories.

In "Gods Country and the Woman" he develops extraordinary situations and reveals the powerful play of human emotions under strange circumstances. The story, featuring William Duncan, will be shown at the Idle Hour Theatre tomorrow.

Phillip Weyman on meeting Josephine Adare recognized her at once as the one woman in the world for him. In spite of her reticence in regard to all things concerning herself and her manifest distress when he told her of his love he was sure that she cared for him. He realized that she lived in grief and dread, though she would not tell him the nature of her sorrows and her fears.

In order to accompany her upon a journey for a purpose she would not explain Weyman persuaded her to go through a marriage ceremony, she declared she could be his wife in name only. With supreme faith in the woman, Weyman accepted the strange conditions, and the pair set forth upon as amazing an adventure as ever was recorded of the Northland.

RICHMOND—"What Women Love."

When James King Cotton the noted reformer meant "legs" he said "limbs" and when Annabel, his lovely daughter mean limbs, she quite plainly said "legs."

One would hardly think that such a natural girl could very well get along with such a hard-shelled old father as Dr. Cotton, but Annabel loved every reflection of his immodestly bald head and condoled with him when an innocent indiscretion of her's caused his resignation as president of the Purity League.

Such is the delightfully whimsy situation at the opening of "What Women Love," a First National Attraction and Annette Kellerman's latest modern comedy drama which will be shown tonight at the Richmond Theatre

"What Women Love" is a rare combination of breath-catching drama and delightful humor.

Supporting Miss Kellerman in such favorites of the silversheet as Wheeler Oakman, Walter Long, Ralph Lewis, Carl Ullman and the notoriously unbeautiful Bull Montana.

INGOMAR—Thrilling Comedy Drama

Billie Burke's latest starring vehicle, "Away Goes Prudence," which will be shown at the Ingomar Theater today is a thrilling comedy drama which should prove delightful entertainment for the patrons. This Paramount Artcraft photoplay affords Miss Burke one of the best roles of her screen career and with many successes to her credit, that is saying a good deal. Percy Marmont is her leading man. The story was written especially for the star by Josephine Lovett.

Four Hurt in Crash of Navy Dirigible

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—The navy dirigible C-6 crashed into Laurel canyon, near Hollywood, a Los Angeles suburbs yesterday. Four members of the crew were injured.

The dirigible, en route from San Diego to San Pedro, jammed into the canyon when it became lost in a fog.

Billy Sunday Fires Burning Rebuke at 'Dastardly' Plotters

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 1.—The heart of the average American boy will cherish bitter enmity toward the dastardy gambling interest that corrupted his baseball idols says Billy Sunday.

But no boy will say today he has lost faith in baseball. He is just one more factor of a public eager to repudiate the slightest suggestion of dishonesty and anxious to back up the efforts to maintain for baseball the reputation it has had for years—clean, on the square, wholesome and distinctively American.

Disloyalty and dishonesty did what all the sluggers in the American League could not do—drive Eddie Cicotte from the box. Thus one of the idols of the American boyhood fell from his pedestal of fame. My mind this constitutes one of the saddest features connected with the baseball scandal.

BROOKLYN BALL PLAYERS TO FACE INVESTIGATION

New York, Sept. 30.—While a Chicago Grand Jury was investigating charges that the 1919 world's series was "fixed," New York authorities today started an inquiry into reports that the same clique of gamblers planned a crooked series for 1921.

Acting on a newspaper story to the effect that members of the Brooklyn Nationals, winner of their league pennant, were to be bribed to lose to the Cleveland Indians, District Attorney Lewis, of Kings county, summoned all members of the local team before him Friday morning. At the same time he telegrapher to Chicago for any evidence available there.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty of your skin.

DODSON SOUNDS CALOMEL' DOOM

The 'Liver Tone' Man Warns Folks Against the Sickening, Salivating Drug '

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you lose a day.

Calomel is mercury! When it comes into contact with sour bile, it crashes into it, breaking it up. Then is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish, if liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous, go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it can not saivate or make you sick.

NEWS LETTER OF COMMERCE BODY

Fairfax County agrees to pay one-half of the interest on the bonds and the City of Alexandria to assume the other half which will be a maximum amount of about $40,000.00 to be paid in five years, it is believed, however, that all the money for this road will be available before it will be necessary for the city to pay more than $15,000.00 interest, we will thus have almost immediate use of the road which will be maintained at the expense of the government when completed. We consider this the best investment Alexandria could make. The road will open up a wonderful country with flourishing farms from which produce and fruit can be delivered in this city in three honors time and will afford them a quick outlet to all parts of tht country both by water and rail. The volume of business from the tourist passing through this city will be many times forty thousand dollars, and many will be attracted by our unusual facilities for business enterprises. We have got to build to attract people if we want to hold them.

There is a city in Michigan whose citizens raised a fund of $50,000.00 to be spent in what someone has described as the business of "factory grabbing." The money was so spent in three years. It did not bring a single new industry to the town. When the fund was about exhausted the organization met to wind up its affairs. The motion had been made and seconded when a leading citizen arose. "We have spent our money" he said, "and haven't a thing to show for it. This has set me to wondering if we were not on the wrong track. While we have been trying to bring factories here, we have overlooked our own city. The streets are out of repair. We have no parks. No home for workmen. Our schools, fire and police department are a joke. The city hasn't enough civic spirit to light a bon-fire. Now, instead of going out of business, suppose we all chip in to another fund and spend that money trying to improve the home city. Lets try it for a year, anyway." His enthusiasm prevailed. At the end of a year the results were such that the organization financed itself for another year, then a third. When that third year had run its course, the same citizen made another little speech. "We spent $50,000.00 to get new factories and didn't get one. We have spent about the same amount trying to see how good a town we could make of this, and now look at the inventory: More than a dozen new industries have quietly come in and made their home here. We have good streets, good schools, several parks, efficient fire and police protection, better housing accomodations, and we are all loudly proclaiming and proudly telling the rest of the country that this is the best city on the continent. We not only believe it, but we know it, and, if called on can prove it."

At the beginning of this winter's work you are urged not to forget your bureau meetings, the regular scheduled meetings for the month of October are as follows: Board of Directors meet at 3:30 o'clock p. m., Monday, October 11th. The recently organized Automobile Bureau meets at 8 o'clock, October 5. Retail Merchants Bureau meets October, 13th, at 8 o'clock p. m., and the Civic Bureau meets Monday, October 25th, at 8 o'clock p. m. The Publicity Convention Bureau and the Manufacturers and Jobbers Bureau will meet as heretofore at the call of the Chairmen. We are very anxious to have these meetings well attended, and want to make them attractive as possible. Organizations are playing a very important part in the affars of the country today, as well as promote the interest of the cities where they are located, and in order that our city may get the best that is in us it is necessary that our members should meet and give a free and complete expression in solving the problems that confront our city, for after all this is your city and your Chamber of Commerce and you are looked to for your advice and help in sharing the policies of our city and Chamber. At the next meeting of the Retail Merchants Bureau, Wednesday, October 13th, we expect to have some interesting features, and a committee has been appointed to work up a program.

The recently organized Automobile Bureau is a "live wire." Its members are full of enthusiasm and already much good has been accomplished, they hold a complete membership in the American Automobile Association, to which all of the members have access for touring information free of charge upon presentation of their membership card. Your Secretary also has a number of A. A. A. emblems which can be purchased at thirty-five cents each.

The Board of Directors met on August 4th, and at that time discussed the question of fuel shortage, in order that our industries may be protected and looked after, a coal committee was appointed of which Mr. Harry Hammond is Chairman to work in co-operation with other cities in the State in their endeavor to bring about an equitable distribution of coal and to act locally in arranging for an adequate supply for our large industries. If any of our large users of coal feel that they will not get a supply sufficient for their needs, the complaint should be made in writing to the Fuel Committee, Chamber of Commerce, Alexandria, Virginia, and they will do their utmost to supply the remedy. It is understood that the household consumer is being amply taken care of by the local dealers who do not anticipate any trouble in supplying all needs.

We are pleased to note that the Fruit Growers' Express are building a large car shop at the head of North Washington street extended, this building, we under stand, is 146 feet by 267 feet and when completed they expect to turn out five refrigerator cars per day. There is also a healthful growth in other lines of industry. We know of two firms that will double their capacity and one that will increase, in the near future, their plant six times, and still another who has received a large contract which means doubling their capacity.

Wedding Bells to Ring for Girl 13 Despite School Law

Scranton,, Pa., Oct. 1.—Wedding bells and then back to school! Miss Jane Lameo, 13 years old, is to be married next week. Now the State school code provides that no child can leave the classroom until 14 years or more. Then only if she has passed through the sixth grade. The Lameo girl fails to pass either requirement.

When Superintendent Weber informed the girl that she would have to remain in school for at least another year she wept and summoned her hubby-to-be. It was then that Superintendent Weber relented, and said he would give Miss Lameo a week away from school for her honeymoon. It was agreed that after the honeymoon the girl would return to school in order to comply with the code.

First Big Exposition of All The Newest

Shoes for Men, Women and Children

Begins Tomorrow

And when we tell you that you can profitably spend an hour or two in looking over our very complete line of footwear for AUTUMN and WINTER, 1920-21, we mean exactly what we say. Low shoes are going to be popular this winter and our stock for both men and women is very complete. We also show the stylish and up-to-date in high shoes and our footwear for children can't be excelled.

For Smart Women

The BROGUE is the most accepted of all fall styles for women. We are showing them in either high or low shoes, of tan and mahogany calf with military heels—

Exclusive But Inexpensive

We are also showing every other style that is popular or wanted for the new season's wearing.

Dress Up The Youngster

We lay considerable stress on the elegant line of shoes for the boy and girl that are now on display here. The line is complete in every detail and the shoes are reasonably priced, too. Bring the children here!

Well Groomed Men

Always consider their shoes one of the principal articles of wearing apparel. And we are better situated this year than ever before to care for the wants of the careful man. Our big leaders are—

Florsheim-Beacon

And here you can find the ultra-stylish BROGUE as well as the plain styles—in both high and low shoes—all the very fashionable colors—such as tan, mahogany and black.

COME IN TOMORROW AND SEE THEM FOR YOURSELF

of fine shoes doesn't do you any good unless the men in the store know how to fit you. Florsheim provides the right shoes—right style, right price, right value—and we provide the fitting. We know shoes and how to fit them.
